Re: Membership Ideas

Hi Ladies,

Membership chairs had a luncheon meeting at FLASH. We asked questions and gave advice and suggestions on how to get members as well as keep members that we already have.

Could you email me the things that you have tried this year to gain and retain members? I would like to hear both things that worked for your chorus and things that didn't work.

Thank you!

Featuring Sharon Babb

A native of Missouri but a resident of Boulder, Colorado, for most of her life, Sharon is a retired high school English teacher and principal, an avid reader, a lucky wife of Carl for 45 years, the mother of two grown sons, a wannabe gardener, a never-to-wannabe cook, a sought-after emcee, a novice arranger, and a Sweet Adeline to the bone. She joined the Centennial Chapter in Boulder in 1969 under the direction of Sylvia Alsbury and has been an active and devoted Sweet Adeline ever since. She was the co-director of the High Country Chorus when they won the International Chorus Championship in Honolulu in 1987. She has also directed Skyline, Mountain Melody, and Colorado Spirit! She has served as a chapter and regional administrative leader, a member of the Region 8 faculty, a certified judge in both sound and music, a past judge specialist in Sound, the current judge specialist in Music, a member of the Education Direction Committee, the first master faculty member, a past International Board member, the 2013 Life-Time Achievement honoree, chorus and quartet coach, and--always and forever—a baritone.
