LOOKING FOR HOST CHORUSES FOR FLASH 2020 AND CONVENTION 2021

Has your chorus ever considered hosting a regional event? Do you have questions as to what it entails? Now is the time to ask and to act.

Here are a few of the benefits of hosting FLASH:

- Choose the theme for the weekend
- Host Chapter members are exempt from paying registration however they are required to pay the lunch fee.
- Host the boutique
- Perform on the Saturday night show
- Receive free coaching from visiting faculty on Sunday morning
- Receive $500 stipend from the Region after all end of event reports and monies are turned in.

Hosting convention is a bigger job but has successfully been done by both large and small choruses. Or maybe you would like to work together with a sister chorus. There is a wealth of guidance, How To's and other aids available to help you have a fun and successful hosting experience. It's also important to note that most of the work to host convention is done before competition weekend. (Most of the big jobs during competition weekend are done by the outgoing champion chorus.) Here are the benefits of hosting the spring convention:

- Choose the theme for the weekend
- Host the boutique
- Perform on the Saturday night show
- Host the Afterglow party
- Receive $2000 stipend from the Region after all end of event reports and monies are turned in.

Applications are being accepted now through March 21, 2020 for FLASH 2020 at the Delta Hotel by Marriott in Hunt Valley, MD on Sep 11-13, 2020, and Competition & Convention 2021 in Lancaster, PA at the Lancaster Penn Marriott on Apr 15-18, 2021. You will be notified of the decision by April 6, 2020. If you are selected to host convention 2021, a representative from your chorus should plan to attend the RCSC meeting on Sun May 3, 2020 at the Lancaster Penn Marriott.

Applications can be found here: <https://www.region19sai.org/events.html> Please print, scan, and email the completed form to me at sakhcmc61@gmail.com.

All choruses in good standing are eligible to host an event. Preference will be given to choruses who have not hosted that event in the last 3 years.

2020 COMPETITION AND CONVENTION HOUSING FAQs

Can you believe it's already time to start planning for the 2020 Competition and Convention in Lancaster, PA? In an effort to help you get started and answer some of your pressing questions about housing, I've provided a short list of FAQ's. Should you have any questions, please contact the housing representative for your chorus or, if needed, you are welcome to reach out to me at region19saihousing@gmail.com. I look forward to working with you!

REGION 19 NEEDS YOU!

As a growing organization we need a village to make all the wonderful things that we have to offer work in perfect harmony. At the entrance to that village is a wonderful group of women who volunteer their time to do the administrative and financial business of the region. Each Coordinator is assigned to a 2 year position and they are rotated so that we maintain consistency on the Team. Each Coordinator then builds a team of people underneath their area to help facilitate all the tasks that need to be done within the region. We can't do any of this alone. WE NEED YOU!!! There are medium, small, and smaller tasks open for your help. All you have to do is pick an area that interests you and say "I'd like to help!" We'll jump at the chance to have you work with us.

The chart on the next page shows you the RMT positions, who is currently in those positions and whether their individual terms are up on an odd or even numbered year. In 2020 we have 4 positions that would typically come open and available. The Education Coordinator position, while renewing at the end of April 2020, must be submitted in advance to the International Headquarters for approval by the Board. That has been completed for the next term and we are thrilled to let you know that Lori Jo Whitehaus has been appointed to serve our region for another 2 year term – beginning May 1, 2020. Jennifer Newman has expressed a desire to step off the RMT at the end of her term in April. Nicole Burkhardt recently came on the Team to fill the uncompleted term of Communications Coordinator and was appointed to remain for the next term. I have agreed to remain as Team Coordinator unless a successor applies and is approved.

We hope that you will consider becoming part of the wheel that keeps our region moving successfully forward. There are a couple ways that you can become involved. If you know what you'd like to do and are ready to jump right in, go to the regional website and complete an application. Perhaps you don't know what you'd like to do but know you want to be involved. The region offers a wonderful Shadow program that allows you to come on the Team, check out all that we do and then decide where you would fit best. The Shadow program application is also on our website. If you would like more information about any of these positions on the RMT, please feel free to contact me at ihershey@aol.com.

SCHOOL EDUCATION WORK WISDOM YOUTH

January has been a busy month for our region. I'll just highlight three exciting things in my column this month. I'll see you soon at Sweet Sisterhood 2020 in Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

VoiceWorks2020 - What a success! With the help of Michael Gellert, Lynda KEEVER and Cydney Wentsel, over 200 singers worked on the key vocal skills necessary for great singing. Tenors, Leads, Baritones and Bases learned even more skills with the help of our medalists quartets GQ, All Fired Up and Famous Janes. We can't forget the efforts of those working behind the scenes to make these events happen, too. Sharon Boyer's team of Nikki Burkhardt (Wilmington), Felecia Summy (Harrisburg) and Robin Blythe (Frederick) coordinated with the facility and organized lunches. If you haven't completed an evaluation of the day, please do so. This information is compiled and sent to all involved so that we can plan VoiceWorks2023 with your ideas in mind.

Free Faculty Visits - Our 16-member faculty has dedicated themselves to serving the membership through personalized visits to our choruses. Take advantage of their skills and think outside the box. Not every visit needs to be for coaching or strategic planning. Our new Faculty Coordinator, Sharon Boyer, is hoping that you will take full advantage of your allotted visits before the end of the fiscal year on April 30th. After that, we reset the count and start over. No visits are carried over. If you don't use it, you lose it.

Education Planning Team - We had a wonderful six-hour meeting in January to plan out the next set of educational opportunities. Be sure you have these events on your calendar.

- June 13th - Small Chorus Workshop. This will be a 9-5 kind of event with a choice of two locations. Classes in the morning and chorus coaching in the afternoon. If 60% of your chorus attends, you can be one of the choruses getting coached! If you have a passion for small choruses or are in a small chorus, please consider helping with the organization of this event. Raise your hand high to volunteer so that I can see it. I need your help on this one!
- September 11th-13th - F.L.A.S.H. We planned out the entire schedule to feature fun classes with Kim Wonders and Natalie Allen at this popular fall event that will be in Hunt Valley, MD. You won't want to miss it. Would your chorus like to be the Host Chorus? Complete an application and get it to Sally Kelly, Events Coordinator.
- January 15th-17th, 2021 - Quartet Coaching Weekend. Yes, this popular event is back. Instead of Singers School, 2021 will feature a full weekend of coaching opportunities for our registered quartets. Get three others to quartet with you and get this on your calendar now! Location and faculty to be announced later but you won't want to miss this event organized by our Quartet Promotion Coordinator, Rose Hershey. Want to help? She would love a team approach to this event.

HEART OF MARYLAND

On January 13, Heart of Maryland Chorus (Rockville) was delighted to host Lori Jo Whitehaus, Master Director of Vocal Harmonix (Lancaster, PA) and Red Rose (men's chorus, also Lancaster), who shared her barbershop expertise with us, leading a discussion on setting priorities and long-term goals. Thanks, Lori Jo!

CHAPTER NEWS

HARBOR CITY

The State of the Chorus is strong as we heard from Michael in his annual address. After reviewing 2019 accomplishments, he laid out his plans going forward. HCMC members are on board and excited for the road ahead. It's not all work though. We will take time to play at our annual Bull & Oyster Roast on Feb 8. Join us!

RINGING HILLS

It's was a busy holiday season, but we are ready for the New Year. We started out with a great coaching session with the wonderful Stephanie Bricton! We spent a fabulous evening with Stephanie and our director, Linda, and can't wait to work with them both again at our retreat in February.

CAPITOL ACCORD

Capital Accord welcomed three new members in January: Noel Bingham, baritone; Michele Dastin-van Rijn, lead; and Ana Cohen, bass. They passed their auditions just in time to join us for our annual weekend retreat at Turf Valley Resort in Ellicott City, MD. We were coached by the wonderful Lynda Kever. The weekend was filled with productive sessions and lots of fun.

CHAPTER NEWS

ARUNDELAIR CHORUS

What a wonderful coaching session we had with Michael Gellert. The chorus learned how free our sound could be. As Michael says, singing is glorious, singing is easy, fat tongues are good, and singing the meaning brings it all together. Many thanks, Michael.

VALLEY FORGE

January has been a month of new beginnings for Valley Forge! Our music team along with our new director Rich chose six new exciting repertoire songs for our chorus to learn between January and February. We've started on the road to Harmony Classic in Louisville and can't wait to see what's in store for us!

SHADES OF HARMONY

Now that 2020 is well underway, all thoughts turn to contest. Lynda Keever spent the day with us on our Super Saturday, working on diphthongs and tuning and resonance and expression and ___ (fill in the blank). We feel so connected, knowing that every other Sweet Adelines chorus in the world is doing exactly the same thing!

CHAPTER NEWS

DUNDALK CHORUS

Dundalk Chorus has been "Havin' a good time!" learning our new physical warmup, created and taught by the fabulous Eileen Rosenberg. Don't Stop Us Now! During this contest season, we're on a mission to Outer Space! We're traveling through distant galaxies and star systems to the far corners of the universe. To Infinity, and Beyond!

UPPER CHESAPEAKE

UCC is happy to announce that Tyler Horton is our new director. Tyler is already a part of our family as his grandmother was a former member of our chorus. Tyler studied at Harford Community College and Towson University. He is the Director of Music Ministry at St. Martin's Lutheran Church in Annapolis, MD. Tyler is active in men's barbershop and enjoys swing dancing. We are grateful to Tyler for bringing us his musical knowledge, his energy, and his enthusiasm!

GREATER HARRISBURG

SO proud to represent SAI by winning a PA State-wide contest to sing the National Anthem at the grand opening of the 2020 PA FARM SHOW! Our esteemed state dignitaries were there to hear us WOW the crowd, and we even got an additional "shout-out" from the governor praising our stirring rendition. Milkshakes for all!!!

Pictured: Caroling at nursing homes and to retired chorus members also kept us busy. Clockwise from center: Kevena Espinoza, Lynn Conway, Gwenn Trout, Linda Hagerty, Felecia Summy, Donna Stockley and Karen Galle serenaded retired GH members Betsy Updegraff and Lana Glaser, top.

CHAPTER NEWS

CLUSTERED SPIRES

Wow! What a year it's turning into already! The Clustered Spires Chorus has been hard at work preparing for the 2020 Region 19 Competition in Lancaster this May. For the first time in several years, we've decided to participate in the International Competition Track. We received a lot of good feedback from the judges in Hershey last year, in addition to the award for "Audience Favorite", so we think it's time to give the regular competition a try. Everyone is psyched up and rarin' to go!

Of course, to prepare for this year's competition, we're going to need some good, strong coaching and we've already started with it. Sherry Stanton came to our rehearsal on January 13 and gave us some wonderful ideas for ways to improve our sound. Lori Dreyer is coming on February 24 to give us some more pointers, especially on our showmanship, and of course, Kim Wonders will be visiting from Nashville Metro Chorus for our retreat in March. It doesn't get much better than that!

We ended 2019 with half a dozen holiday performances throughout our community. It would be hard to pick which one we enjoyed the most; they were all a lot of fun! We especially like singing in the streets of Frederick, even though it gets kind of chilly. We love it when people take a few minutes from their holiday shopping to stop and listen. That's what singing is really all about: making people happy!

We started 2020 with a bang by hosting the Region 19 Voice Works event here in Frederick. Our dedicated members worked hard to set up the room and to feed almost 70 Sweet Adelines who attended! Everyone raved about our lunch of pulled pork, mac and cheese, coleslaw and delicious desserts. Many, many thanks to our Chef, Diane Ivins, and her "sous chefs" Pat Cliber and Maggie Alspach (see photo, attached). And, of course, the program with Cyd Wentzel was fantastic, too!

It will be very exciting to see what the rest of this year brings!

QUARTET NEWS

SOUND DESIGN

Sound Design has been working on learning new music and is preparing for regional contest. We've had several coaching sessions with Lynda Keever, Renee Porzel, and Jim Arns. We look forward to singing with Harbor City Music Company in February and with the rest of Region 19 in May!

Facebook

GROUP THERAPY

Group Therapy began the 2020 contest season by coaching with the stellar Michael Gellert. Singing with freedom and joy is easy! Now to use our rehearsals to reinforce what we learned! Look for us in Lancaster!

Facebook

PIVOT

PIVOT is excited to start our 4th competition season after being the entertainment at some rousing holiday parties. We have our coaches lined up and some open mic ops, and looking forward to convention in a new city. Never a dull moment with PIVOT!
