

Music Research Tips and Links

Finding songs to fit an existing theme:

- Google “Songs about (your theme)”
- Search your barbershop music library or your friends’ libraries
- Look up song titles on YouTube, Spotify, iTunes, etc., to find as many examples as possible
- Brainstorm titles based off your favorite music styles, movies, TV shows, Broadway shows, etc.

Finding a Barbershop Arrangement after you have a title:

- <http://www.SweetAdelines.com/shop>
- <https://shop.barbershop.org/>
- <http://www.sheetmusicplus.com/>

Some Arranger websites:

- <http://www.nancybmusic.com/> (Nancy Bergman)
- <https://caroleprietto.wordpress.com/> (Carole Prietto)
- <http://www.larrywrightmusic.com/> (Larry Wright)
- <https://www.dalearrangements.com/> (Aaron Dale)
- <http://www.harmonize.ws/davidwright/> (David Wright)
- <https://gentryarrangements.com/> (Tom Gentry)
- <https://www.gsbmedalmusic.com/> (Jay Giallombardo)
- <https://sweetadelines.com/resources/contactarrangers/> (aggregator site)

Some Barbershop Learning Track websites:

- <https://donyametzger.com/> (Donya Metzger)
- <https://www.tracksbyjen.com/> (Jennifer Cooke)
- <http://www.timtracks.com/> (Tim Waurick)
- <http://barbershoptracks.com/> (aggregator site)

Aggregator resource website:

- <https://www.barbershopconnections.com/>

If you can't find an existing arrangement, check out the SMP Press “Arrange Me” list of titles. The titles on that list can be arranged and offered for sale on SheetMusicPlus.com and there are NO COPYRIGHT clearance fees involved.